PRESIDENT : The time allotted for the discussion of the next Demand under IX—General Administration is two and a half hours. That means that we shall not be able to finish before about six o ' clock. In any case, we shall have to sit another day to make up the time that we have lost. Therefore, I propose to take up the discussion of this Demand to-morrow morning, so that, you will have plenty of time to discuss it afresh. It will also save the Council the inconvenience of sitting to-morrow under the presidency of the Deputy President to carry out the election of members for the committees. As I said in the morning, you can do the elections in two lots, two to-day and two to-morrow. If you are willing to do both to-day you can do so. The House will now adjourn and meet at half past eleven to-morrow morning.

The Council adjourned at 3-22 P. M.

T. P. RAMASUBBA AIYAR,
Secretary to the Legislative Council.
